Applicant's Statement

Failure to disclose a non-compete, non-solicitation, or other restrictive covenant prior to hire may result in withdrawal of an employment offer or termination of employment if later discovered.

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and complete. I authorize investigation of all statements as necessary for employment decisions, including verification of education, prior employment, and references.

I understand that employment with Consolidated Solutions is at-will, meaning either the company or I may end employment at any time, with or without cause, unless otherwise defined by law. I understand that false or misleading information may result in termination. I agree to abide by all company policies and procedures.

I understand that offers of employment are contingent upon successful completion of background screening appropriate to the position. This may include criminal history, driving record, drug and alcohol testing, and for certain roles, a pre-employment physical. Our clients are governed under HIPAA, CMS, and other federal healthcare regulations therefore, Consolidated Solutions also conducts a search of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General (OIG) List of Excluded Individuals/Entities (LEIE) and the System for Award Management (SAM). Individuals who are excluded from participation in federal healthcare programs are not eligible for hire.
